CARSON CITY:

Sanday, .... July 13, 1872.

That is rather a superior breed of hogs, the boars and sows and barrows and little squealers of whose family one is so accustomed to see rouning about and taking on a fresh kink of the tail as they cooly munch and root and grunt through Capital Square. It is not every Capitel that can boast its privileged swine; albeit the truth of history compels the admission that the Romans came to place a material value on the equawking of the sacred gerse of their early days. The harmlessness of our military establishment, even with General Winters and Batterman at its head, is betokened with a queer extravagance of emphasis by our dismantled field pieces and a maternal sow uprooting at its impotent cascable. What a tompion doth a pig's smout make! What fonny powder a young shoat may drop into its idle and gaping vent! What a trough and very potato-cart is its caisson! What a house its ammunition wagon! se swine seem to revel in the instinctive knowledge that they are come upon ignoble times and mean and careless habits. The State showed itself a niggard when its Legislature refused to vote the needed moneys to make that square the handsome place it ought to be and might be made: it is according and might be made; it is ourselvesus Carsonites-who are to be blamed for the fact that a vagabond drove of pigs may forage and wallow and bivouse at upon the State House Square, Let as show a spirit above this mean and rustic slovenliness, and by the very tidiness and genteeler method of our corporate housekeeping we may hope to shame the people's representatives when they shall again assemble here into doing the State's share in making the Capital grounds wortny their name

THE CIRCUS -As appears by advertisement in another of our columns, the Parisian Circus will be here on Wednesday and Fridey next. Now it is in Vir-ginia and here is what the Enterprises sys of it; The Parisi in Circus arrived here yesterday in due time and opened last night to a crowded canvass. It is one of the best shows of the kind that has ever exhibited in this city. The riding, the tumbling, the gymnastic feats and, in fact, all that is given is the best of its kind. Those who patronize this show will get the full worth of their money. New York and New Orleans Circus, which exhibited here a few weeks since, was a poor concern compared to the Par-All who attended last night were delighted, and to-night we may look to see the tent packed till not another man can find space to squeeze himself. This evening, if it prove calm, a balloon ascension will be made just previous to the opening of the show. To night there will be an entire change of peformance.

THE KELLY & LEON TROUPS drew a tremendous gathering last night. It is the old story over again-one good performance to a moderate house and the next night to an overwhelming audience. This should be a lesson to all show people who think of coming to Carson. Less was nothing less than immense in eon was nothing less than immense in Frischen. The Cat chorus is dreadfully funny. Vivian was chaste and artistic as he must always be; and the play at the end sent the crowd away greatly delighted. We should be guilty of an injustice were we to omit a special mention of Mr. Baker. He has the making of a first class tenor. All he needs is

A VERY CHOICE LOT OF BOOKS is that which is offered for sale by auction in the stone block next to Winnie & Divid's stable. Not only the most desirable works of fiction, but many standard works such as histories and text books by the acknowledged masters of science are there. Book-lovers will do well to attend.

THE CORBETTS' new brick building is climbing up handsomely. It will be an ornament and a fine fire screen when once up where its plans intend it to be. Every stone or brick building that gets erected on Carson street is that much of a check to any possible conflagration that may come upon us.

VESET seems to have more of a savoir faire about his manner of carrying on the watering-place hotel business at the Glenbrook than any of his numerous predicessors. Enterprise and good management will tell.

FRED BROOKS makes quite an attractive display in the bay window of his new snuggery up by the Theater. The variety of his staple goods and knicknacks is very extended.

[MHE COUNTY AUDITOR BEGS]

Leave to state that the report of the County Pressurer is so fall and accurate respecting the operations of his office auring the first six months of 1875, presenting in detail the total amount receives by him and the various sources of revenus from which derived; the apportionments of the same to the different rands; the tansfers made to and from the several funds; the tansfers made to and from the several funds; the psyments which have been made from each fund, and the cash balances in each fund at the close of 30th June, 1875, that it would be various of 30th June, 1875, that it would be various for the Auditor to attempt to give any additional information upon these several subjects. With this reference to that report, it is, nily necessary for the Auditor to give information upon some other matters which do not necessarily come before the County Frensurer.
